

2012 Georgia National Fair
Fair Bear Writing Competition for Fourth, Fifth and Sixth Grades

Story Theme:

“Fair Bear Goes Green”

Fair Bear sees a presentation on "Going Green" at school and decides to start a project to make the neighborhood "greener." Students will describe the process as Fair Bear decides on, designs, and implements a project. The project can be anything from a recycling program, to a community garden, to any type of program to reduce waste.

Teachers, this is an excellent opportunity to combine Social Studies and Creative Writing exercises in your classroom. It's easy to enter and a great opportunity to win prize money for your school!

Postmark Deadline
February 20, 2012

The “Bear” Facts

You are invited to write a story about a very special American black bear who lived from about 1980 to 1993 in middle Georgia near the Georgia National Fairgrounds. The bear was seen off and on by people who lived in the area. None of the people who saw the bear could believe it was really a bear at first! Once, the black bear was seen in a neighborhood subdivision located in a wooded area across the interstate from the Fairgrounds. Another year the bear was seen on a nearby road south of the Fairgrounds, paws on the top wire of a fence, watching the cars go by. In June 1993, the last reported encounter was described by a Perry resident who was jogging through the Fairgrounds just before dark. “I heard tractor-trailer trucks putting on brakes on the interstate and I looked to see why they were slowing down. I saw a large black animal standing by the fence near the west gate entrance to the Fairgrounds. I stopped jogging to get a better look at the animal and realized it was a black bear. The bear was standing with its paws on the fence watching me. Then the bear climbed over the fence and again stood on its back feet to get a better look at me. I didn’t try to get a better look at the bear; I ran!” The bear’s path often crossed I-75 near the Fairgrounds, which is a very busy interstate. One day the bear was hit by a car on the interstate and died. The people who had kept track of the bear were sad. The black bear was taken to a taxidermist so that more people would be able to see the beautiful bear. The bear’s name is “Fair Bear” and has become the Georgia National Fair mascot.

Fair Bear has been the subject of the Georgia National Fair writing competition for 4th, 5th and 6th graders since 1994.

JUDGING

Procedures for Classroom Judging, School-Wide Judging and System-Wide Judging: It is recommended that the procedures listed in the Official Rules Booklet of "The Young Georgia Authors' Exposition and Recognition" be used as a guide for selecting the system winners in the three levels of the "Fair Bear" Creative Writing Competition.

Procedures for final judging at the Georgia National Fairgrounds:

1. Entries for the final judging will be scored using the guidelines on the back of this page, and in addition should show evidence of creativity and use of theme -"Fair Bear Goes Green."
2. Judges for the final phase of the competition will be selected from language arts professionals in Georgia. A panel will be chosen for each grade level of competition.
3. The judges will not have access to each other's scores while judging nor shall they know the writer's name or school system.
4. The writing entry with the highest score at each grade level will be the first-place winner; next highest score at each grade level will receive second place; and the third highest score at each grade level will receive third place.
5. The first-place winners from the three levels will be read by a panel of judges to determine the Grand Prize Winner. The Grand Prize Winner will receive grand prize awards in addition to the first-place awards.
6. A list of winners will be posted online by April 15, 2012. Winning principals, teachers and students will be notified by mail by April 20, 2012.
7. Awards will be presented during a special ceremony at the 23rd annual Georgia National Fair on Saturday, October 6, 2012. Time to be announced.
